

Centre for
Climate Change
Economics and Policy

Workshop on Climate Compatible Development and experience from sub-Saharan Africa

- Forum to build network to share policy, donor, practitioner and academic insights on CCD (policy & donor drivers, academic critique & practical reflections)
- Aim to draw out synergies and differences and identify opportunities, barriers and limits to the design and implementation of CCD in sub-Saharan Africa (esp. Malawi, Zambia & Tanzania)
- Develop research ideas & plans forwards Susannah Sallu & Andy Dougill

Centre for
Climate Change
Economics and Policy

WON
Worldwide Universities Network

AFRICA
COLLEGE

Centre for
Climate Change
Economics and Policy

Links to Ongoing Research Programmes

- Leeds research projects aimed at developing trans-disciplinary approaches to assessing environmental change & community adaptation strategies.
- Evolving to enable multi-scale, multi-method assessments in range of environments to inform ongoing policy debates:-
 - CCCEP projects in Malawi & Botswana (Closing the Loop) & Tanzania (Adaptation-Mitigation links) & dryland modelling overview Ecology & Society feature <http://www.cccep.ac.uk/Home.aspx>
 - CDKN project on Institutional & Governance Partnerships in DRC, Zambia, Zimbabwe & Mozambique <http://www.see.leeds.ac.uk/research/sri/cdkn/>
 - ESRC WRDTC on Climate Compatible Development: Evaluating New Governance Systems <http://www.see.leeds.ac.uk/research/sri/ccdp/>
 - Africa College initiatives to link to African Food Security & research on uptake of new technologies <http://www.africacollege.leeds.ac.uk/>